

- 1 Tree planting to strengthen existing hedgerows
- 2 New hedgerow with trees
- 3 Biodiversity enhancing existing hedgerows

Picnic area within flower meadow

Access point

Operational Wind Farm

- Site boundary including retained agricultural land
- Proposed land used for solar farm
- Public footpath

- 4 Wildflower corridor either side of footpath
- 5 Bird and bat boxes to be installed to existing mature trees
- 6 Reptile hibernacula and log piles to be located over the site in field margins
- 7 New woodland

exagen
energising a cleaner future

Conceptual design

Highfield Energy Park

Site access

Existing overhead 66kV electricity line and the three pylons on site

Site access track

Bird and bat boxes in mature trees to the south

Retained grazing fields

Development offset from woodland to the south

Reptile hibernacula and log piles to be created to the south

Wildflower grassland area to the south of the access track

Battery and point of connection compound

